

Coastal Kids Preschool Serves Up Successful Spaghetti Dinner and Raffle

There were tomato smiles all around when over 80 students, parents, grandparents, and supporters of Coastal Kids Preschool dug into the Fifth Annual Spaghetti Dinner recently held at the Damariscotta Legion Hall.

Not only were there meatballs and all the trimmings for a great spaghetti dinner, but also many local businesses donated goods and services for the raffle. The combined proceeds were over $800.

Priscilla Congdon, Director of Coastal Kids Preschool notes a special thanks go to the American Legion Hall for allowing them to use the space again this year, Jane Gilbert for cooking and organizing the kitchen volunteers and food, parents and staff for help with set up and clean up, and Coastal Kid's parents who donated food.

Raffle tickets sold like hotcakes because the raffle items that had been donated were so extraordinarily generous. Congdon would like to thank the following businesses who supported the event with donations: Damariscotta Hardware, Boothbay Railway Museum, Damariscotta River Grill, Mia's Shear Perfection, Yellowfront Grocery, Narragansett Leather, Maine Cloth Diaper Store, Rising Tide, Supplies Unlimited, Mexicali Blues, Mike's Place, All Play Bowling, Dee's Variety, Hanna's Garage, Reilly's Grocery, Maine Coast Book Shop, Subway, Wylie's and Hanley's Market.
